After fighting the battles of finals, Spartans will witness a battle this week as four or five bands meet their Waterloo in South High's Battle of the Bands Friday evening at 9 in South's cafeteria.

Contending for the top spot will be All 5, The Beau Gentrys, The Artisans, The Thorns, and last year's winner, Chapter VI.

Varsity cagers will play Inglewood today at 3 p.m. in South's gym. Friday sees South vying for a victory over Redondo in a home game at 8 p.m. Varsity center Jerry Turner, confident of Redondo's defeat, said, "The Redondo team isn't all it's built up to be."

Yesterday in a morning assembly, Spartans got the chance to compare their own techniques with Jerry Poe from the American Red Cross when he elaborated on his experiences as he hitchhiked through Russia.

Spartans, who are always enthusiastic but sometimes find little to cheer about, are getting a kick out of South's Soccer Club. The club, one of the largest on campus and in its first year, has defeated all high school teams they have clashed with. Belmont High of Los Angeles, also undefeated, will meet the Spartan Soccer Team this Saturday at 11 a.m. on the football field.

South players have met UCLA varsity and jayvee players twice. Although the Spartans were defeated, Coach Stewart of UCLA named South's team "the best high school team UCLA ever played."

New Term Begins at El Camino

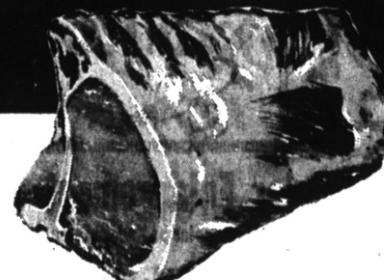

More than 14,500 students are expected to return to classes next Monday at El Camino College. Total enrollment will be about 1,000 less than the fall semester, Leo M. Christian, dean of admissions, estimated today.

Friday is the final day for students to register for spring semester classes, Christian said.

New part-time students may register tomorrow and Friday by securing reservations in the admission office. Placement tests, when required, must be completed a minimum of five days prior to registration, he explained.

New and former full-time students will register today, tomorrow, and Friday in the communications center.
